

The Providores and Tapa Room

We are proud to offer the largest selection of premium New Zealand wines at any restaurant in Europe. We hope you find our list informative and concise - and that you are able to make an informed selection from it. We are constantly evolving our choice of wines, keenly aware of supporting the many vineyards throughout New Zealand with whom we have built strong relationships over the years.

New Zealand's Wine Regions

There are 10 major wine regions in New Zealand. Each boasts an enormous diversity in climate, terrain and therefore, style of wine. (see page 2 for regional descriptions) As a tribute to each of these regions The Providores will be profiling one wine each month in our 'by the glass' programme, allowing you the opportunity to try some of our favourite wines.

1. Northland
2. Auckland
3. Bay of Plenty and Waikato
4. Gisborne
5. Hawke's Bay
6. Wairarapa
7. Nelson
- 8. Marlborough
9. Canterbury and Waipara
10. Central and North Otago

2015 Nautilus Estate, Chardonnay, Renwick, Marlborough

£46.00 bottle / £29.45 carafe / £9.90 glass

Rich complex aromas of crème brûlée and lemon blossom. Delicately structured with racy acidity and long well integrated finish

The Nautilus shell - a symbol of both natural beauty and evolution - represents the ideals behind the vineyard's beautifully crafted wines. Chief winemaker, Clive Jones, is in charge of the estate whose focus is on well-textured wines that reflect the unique terroir that continues to make Marlborough famous.

Nautilus Estate, a small, family-owned winery, was established in Marlborough in 1985. Only a handful of maverick winemakers had previously planted grapes in this cool, dry and somewhat unproven region but the estate's pioneering spirit paid off. The vineyard has steadily developed its reputation as a benchmark New Zealand producer ever since.
