

The Providores and Tapa Room

We are proud to offer the largest selection of premium New Zealand wines at any restaurant in Europe. We hope you find our list informative and concise - and that you are able to make an informed selection from it. We are constantly evolving our choice of wines, keenly aware of supporting the many vineyards throughout New Zealand with whom we have built strong relationships over the years.

New Zealand's Wine Regions

2011 Peregrine, Dry Riesling, Bendigo, Central Otago

Fresh floral flavours of elderflower and citrus aromas, that is well balanced by the minerality and acidity

£50.00 bottle / £32.00 carafe / £10.75 glass

Set in the rugged, mountainous beauty of Central Otago in the South Island, this privately-owned producer is committed to enhancing the environment through both the development of its organically certified estates (and winery) plus its hands-on involvement in the conservation of two of New Zealand's native birds, the Saddleback and Mohua. Estate owners, Lindsay McLachlan and Greg Hay, have a philosophy of producing wine that is truly representative of the Central Otago region, utilising only the very best hand-picked fruit from 11 sites around the Lowburn, Bendigo and Gibbston sub regions. In its short history, Peregrine has been an impressive high achiever, with its wines winning numerous prestigious awards and trophies around the world. It produced its first vintage in 1998, and although known as a specialist Pinot Noir house, it also produces excellent Riesling, Pinot Gris, Chardonnay and Sauvignon Blanc. The vineyard takes its name from the North American Peregrine falcon - the fastest-flying bird in the world. The Peregrine is related to one of New Zealand's native raptors - the endangered Karearea - with the vineyard supporting the NZ Wingspan Birds of Prey Trust. The stunning winery has garnered many architectural awards, evoking as it does, the wingspan of a falcon, gliding on thermal air rising from the heated landscape.
