We are constantly evolving our choice of wines, keenly aware of supporting the many vineyards throughout New Zealand with whom we have built strong relationships over the years.

2016 The Providores, Sauvignon Blanc, Awatere Valley, Marlborough

Ripe melon and guava characteristics supported by classic Awatere nuance.

This is the epitome of New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc - displaying vibrant fruit, crisp acidity and exceptional texture.

We are committed to sourcing the best quality wines from various regions of New Zealand. Wines that are indicative of terroir, that are approachable and above all enjoyable. Ben Glover, wine stylist, chose this Sauvignon Blanc exclusively for us from a single vineyard in the Upper Awatere Valley.

2015 Man O War, Sauvignon Blanc, Waiheke Island, Auckland

Exuberant expression of a traditional herbaceous style with fresh herbs, gooseberry, capsicum and tropical fruits. Great minerality and elevated acidity which is well-balanced with texture from the barrel and ripe fruit tannins.

Located at the eastern end of Waiheke Island, Man O' War Vineyards boasts a beautiful, pristine spread of coastal hillsides with high cliffs and stunning beaches. This rugged coastline was discovered in 1769 by Captain James Cook. Man O'War's philosophy is to maintain the land's natural beauty and integrity for future generations.

Ivan Donaldson has been involved in the wine industry since the late 1970's, and he planted the first vines on this prime terraced north-facing site in 1986. The Donaldson family's combined passions for quality and purity is evident in their commitment to sustainable viticulture, keeping intervention in the winery to a minimum, and working together as a family run business.
