

The Providores and Tapa Room

We are proud to offer the largest selection of premium New Zealand wines at any restaurant in Europe. We hope you find our list informative and concise - and that you are able to make an informed selection from it. We are constantly evolving our choice of wines, keenly aware of supporting the many vineyards throughout New Zealand with whom we have built strong relationships over the years.

New Zealand's Wine Regions

There are 10 major wine regions in New Zealand. Each boasts an enormous diversity in climate, terrain and therefore, style of wine. (see page 2 for regional descriptions)
As a tribute to each of these regions The Providores will be profiling one wine each month in our 'by the glass' programme, allowing you the opportunity to try some of our favourite wines.

2012 Craggy Range, Kidnappers, Chardonnay, Gimblett Gravels, Hawke's Bay

Subdued manuka honey and citrus envelop the palate. Minerally driven and extremely complex, Chablis in style - utterly delicious!

£48.00 bottle £26.90 400ml carafe £9.00 125ml glass

Craggy Range

Craggy Range is a family-owned vineyard based in the Hawke's Bay, but with associated vineyards in Martinborough, Marlborough, Nelson and Bannockburn. Terry Peabody (originally from Canada) and Steve Smith (New Zealand's first viturculturst to become a Master of Wine) have turned Craggy Range into one of New Zealand's finest wine producers. They first met in 1997 and shared a vision of creating a winery producing individual wines expressing the varied terroir New Zealand's landscape offered. Steve and Terry are committed to the long-term development of Craggy Range and now, the second generation of Peabodys are increasingly involved in the business. The vineyard was launched to the world at an event called GIANTS where Dame Kiri Te Kanawa, Tim Finn and Sir Edmund Hillary all appeared. The Providores' own Peter Gordon was also invited - and as guest chef, created a special, celebratory dinner initiating an ongoing bond between The Providores and Craggy Range.
